MATCHA:

Matcha originates from Japan, where it has a long history dating back to the Tang Dynasty in China. The practice of grinding green tea leaves into a fine powder was brought to Japan in the 12th century by Buddhist monks, who valued it for its calming effects and ability to enhance meditation.

The unique cultivation and processing methods, including shading the tea plants before harvest, contribute to matcha's vibrant color and rich flavor.

RED WINE:

Bastide Miraflores France 2020 14.5% ABV

The Bastide Miraflores from Domaine Lafage in the French wine-growing region of Cotes du Roussillon is a smooth, complex and deep red wine cuvée vinified from the Grenache and Syrah grape varieties.

In the glass, this wine shimmers a deep purple with purple highlights. The nose enjoys an expressive bouquet that reveals smoky notes, chocolate and some licorice, in addition to blackberry fruits (blackberry and currant). On the palate, this French red wine convinces with a fresh structure that harmonizes wonderfully with the silky tannins. The aromatics of the nose are complemented by notes of tobacco and cocoa. The silky texture gives this red wine its smooth body, without hard edges. The soft finish has a pleasant length.

Flechas de Los Andes Gran Malbec Argentina 2019 14.5% ABV

This wine is expressive and charming with notes of ripe cassis, plums, redcurrants and cherries with hints of vanilla. The palate is rounded and generous, revealing a dense but integrated tannic structure which focuses attention on its richness and depth.

Casa Marrone Italy 2022 14.5% ABV

The wine has balanced oak characters with notes of mature dark cherries, plum and milk chocolate with Madagascan vanilla. The intense flavours give way to a long, lingering finish.

Baron De Ley Reserva Rioja Spain 2019 14.5% ABV

This classification means that the wine has been aged for a minimum of 3 years, with at least one year spent in oak barrels. Barón de Ley Reserva is typically aged in American oak barrels, which contribute distinctive flavors of vanilla, toast, and spice to the wine. This oak aging allows the wine to develop a more complex flavor profile and softens the tannins, making it more approachable for drinking relatively young but with good aging potential.

Monsoon Valley Shiraz Thailand 2017 13% ABV

Made from carefully selected Shiraz grapes, Monsoon Valley Shiraz is slowly matured in German and French oak barrels to develop rich flavors with ripe plum and sour cherry aromas and coffee notes. The wine is rich, well-balanced, structured with medium body, and soft tannin level.

Calusari Pinot Noir Romania 2022 12.5% ABV

A leading Romanian vineyard Cramele Recas. A medium bodied red with juicy plum and red cherry fruit and a velvety finish. This is a strikingly aromatic Pinot Noir with violets and dried cherries on the nose with hints of tobacco but its real asset is a fantastically juicy, berry palate and a silky smooth, delicious finish.

CALUSARI PINOT GRIGIO Romania 2023
11% ABV

Dating back to 1447, this formally state-owned winery has been reinvigorated by Englishman, Philip Cox and his Romanian wife, Elvira. Since 1988, they have brought 650ha of vineyards to the forefront of Romanian winemaking, and providing some of the best value wines to be found anywhere in the world.

The wine has lovely, opulent aromas of grapefruit and peach which follow through to a lithe body that has loads of melon and ripe apple flavours in tandem with a crisp citrusy acidity.
